

DOCTOR • WHO

COLD WAR

PART TWO

Last time in Doctor Who Adventures... After a visit to the melting ice world of Isgar, the Doctor has been sacrificed to a great sky god and thrown into the mouth of Asharoth - a dimensional gateway. But it all looks strangely familiar...

What d'you mean
you're saving
the Earth?

Reverse
phase!

It's air-conditioning,
isn't it? You're using the whole of Isgar as a giant air-conditioner
for the Earth!

Whoah!

Hold on,
Martha!

We've got to rescue the Doctor.

It's too late
- Asharoth has
consumed him.
There's nothing we can do...

We can hide in the
TARDIS... oh no!
I've lost the key.

We can't return
to Isqar. Thamli
would have us
killed.

Then we're going to
freeze to death...
Or at least I am!

Listen to me! You're wiping out an innocent planet!

Ssshh! You're
drawing attention
to yourself!

Me? Drawing
attention to myself? As if!

Be quiet! Mallingane's busy at the moment. I'm Professor Kate Curran
- who are you? And what did you mean about 'Isqar'?

I'm the Doctor. You didn't know about Isqar? How stupid
are you people?

Mallingane told us it was uninhabited - said he'd done a survey. He didn't tell us it had a name.

I don't suppose he has anything to gain by turning a blind eye to the Isqarites, does he?

He's being paid an awful lot of money to come up with a solution to global warming. For 12 hours a day, the gateway pumps hot air...

Hot polluted air.

...to the ice world. To Isqar. And for the other 12 it sucks cold, clean air back to the Earth. And he's planning to build more of them...

The Earth lives... and Isqar dies. C'mon Kate - you've got to get me out of here. If we don't stop him, millions of people are doomed.

Meanwhile...

Word will have reached the Empress - more of my people will come for us soon.

Is there no other citadel we can go to?

The Empress will have spread the word. There's nowhere we can be safe now.

And then they'll throw us through that hole again, won't they?

SKREEEEEEEEEEEE!

Martha reacts quickly!

Our deaths will be swift.

That's what I'm worried about. I was looking forward to a slow death. Another 70 years slow.

It's the Doctor!

Oi you two!
You'll get piles
sitting on that ice! Come on
- jump!

Kate! Drop us
up there, by that blue
box! And then get back through the gateway
- it's not going to hold
for more than a couple of seconds!

Thanks, Kate
- and good luck!
Find *another
solution* to Earth's problems.
I know you can do it!

Thanks for having faith, Doctor! I'll do my best!

I wiped Isqar's coordinates from Mallingane's device. He won't be back. Give it a few months and your world will be its lovely, chilly old self.
And you'll probably be hailed as a hero, Paltoq! Look
- here comes the welcoming
committee...

I know I
shouldn't say
this...

If you're going to say what I think you're going to say...

But that was...

Don't!

Cool!
